Mon 13th First day of Term 3

Thu 30th SCHOOL PHOTOS

* Stomp the Beat sessions have been rescheduled to the first five Wednesday's of Term 4, this applies to all year levels.

We will miss Kent for term three, he is off to the snow as he pursues his passion to teach at Diner Plains. We look forward to his return in term four.

Main entry gates blocked off over the term break

As you've notice our fancy new front fence is up and there's just a few more final finishes to be done. A strip of our main IN and OUT gates are being concreted over the break, this means they will be blocked off for the two week period. The concrete needs two weeks to fully cure, so the holiday period was our best option. OSHClub staff and parents will need to access the school via the gravel carpark.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

Thought for the week: Consider the other point of view before you make a judgment and remember to have unconditional positive regard for each other.

COVID 19 has certainly thrown us a curve, as a community we have risen to its challenges and navigated an extraordinary amount of changes in our everyday life. Now we have all of our students back together, we begin the process of re-establishing friendships, working out how to play and work together, follow our values of respect, responsibility and integrity to recommence again in a completely different way with an open mindset.

Our challenge is to see beyond what is shown and look beneath to the hidden beauty in all of us. To not judge and condone, but to trust and believe that we will look after our community. Whilst the article below refers to families living and raising children with challenging issues, this applies to all of us as we continue to navigate COVID-19 and resume normality in our lives. The words we use and the way we act towards each other can have a significant impact. We need to have unconditional positive regard for our parents, teachers, students and our community.

A great article from a parent "Have you been to Holland" by Emily Perl Kinglsey.

Please take the time to read:

I am often asked to describe the experience of raising a child with a disability - to try to help people who have not shared that unique experience to understand it, to imagine how it would feel. It's like this.....

When you're going to have a baby, it's like planning a fabulous vacation trip - to Italy. You buy a bunch of guide books and make your wonderful plans. The Coliseum, The Michelangelo David, The gondolas in Venice. You may learn some handy phrases in Italian. It's all very exciting.

After months of eager anticipation, the day finally arrives. You pack your bags and off you go. Several hours later, the plane lands. The stewardess comes in and says, "Welcome to Holland."

"Holland?!?" you say. "What do you mean Holland?? I signed up for Italy! I'm supposed to be in Italy. All my life I've dreamed of going to Italy."

But there's been a change in the flight plan. They've landed in Holland and there you must stay. The important thing is that they haven't taken you to a horrible, disgusting, filthy place, full of pestilence, famine and disease. It's just a different place.

So you must go out and buy new guide books. And you must learn a whole new language. And you will meet a whole new group of people you would never have met.

It's just a different place. It's slower-paced than Italy, less flashy than Italy. But after you've been there for a while and you catch your breath, you look around.... and you begin to notice that Holland has windmills....and Holland has tulips. Holland even has Rembrandts.

But everyone you know is busy coming and going from Italy... and they're all bragging about what a wonderful time they had there. And for the rest of your life, you will say "Yes, that's where I was supposed to go. That's what I had planned."

And the pain of that will never, ever, ever, ever go away... because the loss of that dream is a very, very significant loss.

But... if you spend your life mourning the fact that you didn't get to Italy, you may never be free to enjoy the very special, the very lovely things ... about Holland.

I hope you have enjoyed this piece as it rings true with so many things in life. We are often expecting things to be as we have planned, but strangely life throws us many challenges to deal with. I have always believed that we are only sent what we can deal with, well most of the time, however sometimes we need a helping hand as life can easily overwhelm us.

Have a great holiday, see you all next term.

Goodbye FlexiBuzz ...

As of the 30th June, FlexiBuzz will no longer be operating and we will need to put another communication method in place. For the interim and commencing term three, the best way to submit a student absence will be:

- ✓ Sentral Parent Portal
- ✓ Email the school the.patch.ps@education.vic.gov.au
- ✓ If the above fails, call the school office 9756 7463

One more grump

I know we have sent a few grumpy messages out lately in relation to the increased traffic issues for pick up & drop off.

We just have one more...

Please do not park in front or on the pathway that leads to the oval from The Patch Road.

Once again, thank you to everyone who have been doing the right thing.

Kellie & 5/6A brought Italy to us

If it wasn't for coronavirus, Kellie would be soaking up the sun in Italy right now. She had booked her family a holiday to Italy and unfortunately due to Coronavirus they were unable to go. So this week 5/6A brought Italy to us!

WHAT ASSMELBY NOW LOOKS LIKE

Each week a different class gets to attend assembly in the hall, with the rest of our classes & parents watching via WebEx.
